

COUNCIL TO MEET IN ALEXANDRIA

Dr. Berryman Green One of the Delegates to Provincial Synod.

ADJOURN YESTERDAY.

Large Gathering of Ministers and Laymen in Richmond at Meeting of Council This Year.

Richmond, Va., May 22.—The Episcopal Council of Virginia met at a quarter before 10.00 a. m., with Dr. Berryman Green in the chair. It was opened with prayer by the Rev. F. Leslie Robinson. A strong report on social service was presented from the committee appointed for this council and it was ordered to be published in pamphlet form. A resolution in memory of the late Judge T. B. R. Wright an elected member of this council was unanimously passed after an eloquent tribute to his pure and high character as a churchman and citizen had been given by his life long friend, Judge A. W. Wallace, of Fredericksburg.

The report of the committee on the increase of the ministry was read by the Rev. John London. It was an excellent presentation of the whole question. Reference was made to the Skinner Scholarships given by the late Colonel Skinner, of Staunton, Va., and made available by the death of his sister, Miss Skinner last year. There are five of these scholarships at the University of Virginia, those studying on them to pursue their theological course at the Theological Seminary of Virginia. Miss Skinner left some scholarships on the Education Society for students at the Seminary which will soon be available.

The election of delegates to the first synod of the third province was now in order. The following nominations were made: The Rev. W. J. Morton, Dr. Morris, Dr. Green, Dr. Goodwin, W. D. Smith, Dr. H. B. Lee, Dr. Frank Page, W. R. Bowie, W. M. Burkhardt, Dr. J. J. Gravatt, J. T. Downman and T. Carter.

It was moved that forty dollars be the amount allowed for each delegate to the provincial synod. This was referred to finance committee. Nominations were next in order for the lay delegates to the provincial synod. The following were nominated: Messrs. J. B. Minor, Robert Beverley, Rosewell Page, Judge J. K. M. Norton, Judge A. W. Wallace, J. S. Bryan, Colonel E. C. Massie, R. C. Scott and P. H. Mayo.

On the first ballot for clerical delegates to the first provincial synod the Revs. Dr. Berryman Green, Dr. E. L. Goodwin and W. D. Smith were elected.

The Rev. Mr. Jett who is the head of the proposed school for boys in the diocese of Southern Virginia was given an opportunity to speak in its behalf. He said that it was by no means a competitor with the well-known and highly esteemed Episcopal High School in Virginia. It had its own place and was intended to furnish an Episcopal school for those boys whose parents could not afford to pay more than $250 or $300 a year for all school expenses. A good school can be supported and carried on for $250 a year for each boy. The Methodists have done it. The unanimous approval of the Council was given to Mr. Jett's work. He said the school could not be opened until 1916.

The apportionment budget for diocesan expenses was brought before the Council for the next year. It is about the same as that for last year, amounting to $20,000.

The second ballot was then announced for the last clerical delegate to the first provincial synod. There was no election.

The Council was invited to hold its session for 1915 in Christ Church, Alexandria, by the delegate of that church, Mr. Gardner L. Booth. His invitation was unanimously accepted by the Council.

It is resolved that the executive committee on Diocesan missions be authorized to assume the entire salaries of missionaries on the mountain work, and the board of apportionment is instructed to increase the budget for missions to cover any amount that may be necessary to accomplish this.

The first ballot of lay delegates for the primary provincial synod resulted in the elections of the whole number required, Judge J. K. M. Norton, J. Stewart Bryan, J. B. Minor and Judge R. C. Scott. The third and last ballot for a clerical delegate resulted in the election of the Rev. J. J. Gravatt, D. D., completing the full number.

The report of the committee on the state of the church was presented by the Rev. G. P. Mayo. Notwithstanding the death of several prominent clergy and the continued illness of the Bishop, the work of the diocese has gone on in a remarkable way. The small number of candidates for Holy Orders is to be regretted and we trust this matter may still be seriously considered by the whole diocese and church. On the whole however, the year's work of the church has been satisfactory.

The Rev. W. D. Smith presented the general estimate for the apportionment budget for another year. This gives the amounts levied on the diocese through parishes, churches and missions for the support of the missionary and other church work of the diocese. The total estimate is about $20,000. It was resolved that the salaries of missionaries in the mountain sections under Archdeacon Neve and others should be kept up by the apportionment raised for missions.

The following resolution with reference to the observance of Sunday at Mount Vernon offered by the Rev. S. A. Wallis, D. D., and seconded by Judge J. K. M. Norton, was unanimously carried, in which it was resolved that this Council of the diocese of Virginia place on record its unanimous approval of the stand uniformly taken by the Ladies' Association of Mount Vernon in keeping that sacred shrine, the home and resting place of Washington, closed to the public on Sundays. Dr. Wallis and Judge Norton both spoke to the resolution.

The Rev. W. B. Lee offered a resolution on the matter of temperance and the disease of alcoholic stimulants, and by motion of the Council it was made the questions for the afternoon at 3:30 p. m., the Council to meet in executive session.

The Council on motion of the Rev. J. J. Gravatt, D. D., expressed its devout thanks to Almighty God for the partial recovery of their dear bishop and prayed that he may be restored to his full health and preserved to us for many years of service.

The Council then took a recess until half-past three this evening when the resolutions on temperance came before it in executive session. After considerable discussion the following resolution submitted by the Rev. W. R. Bowie was unanimously passed. This Council recognizing that earnest consecrated men may legitimately differ as to the ways and means by which the sale and consumption of intoxicating liquors may best be discouraged and decreased calls all Christian men in the light of their clearest judgment to give their influence and activity to a constructive effort to diminish the consumption and sale of liquor, and to set on foot such positive effort as shall lead to the ultimate goal of the annihilation of traffic in intoxicating liquors as a fact in our civilization.

The thanks of the Council was accorded to Dr. Green for the dignified and efficient way in which he presided over the council during the greater part of its sessions.

The Council then adjourned sine die and the closing religious exercises were conducted by Bishop Gibson.

On Wednesday night of the session the meeting in the interests of Diocesan missions was held a large congregation attending. Dr. E. L. Goodwin made a most satisfactory report of the work of the past year in many parishes and mission stations.

At this meeting Professor W. C. Lisle of the University of Virginia made an effective address on the great progress of the work of the church there under the Rev. Beverley D. Tucker, Jr., and urged the building of the contemplated church.

DR. BLACKFORD PASSES AWAY

Well-Known Educator Expires at Country Home Near High School.

HIS LONG CAREER.

Deceased Was a Familiar Figure in Alexandria and Vicinity During Past Two Score of Years.

Dr. L. M. Blackford, who had for some time been in declining health, died at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at "Greenwood," his country home, near the Episcopal High School, a short distance from this city. The deceased passed away quietly and apparently without pain.

The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the chapel at the Episcopal Theological Seminary.

After a service of forty-three years, Dr. Laurence Minor Blackford resigned as principal of the Episcopal High School three miles west of this city. Dr. Blackford announced his retirement at the seventy-fourth annual commencement of the institution, June 12, 1913. He was succeeded by Prof. A. R. Hoxton, son of the late Colonel Llewellyn Hoxton, formerly associate principal of the school.

Dr. Blackford had a memorable career as an educator of boys. He was born at Fredericksburg, Feb. 23, 1837, and received his education at private schools and at the University of Virginia, from which institution he received the degree of Master of Arts in the year 1860. At the outbreak of the war between the states he enlisted as a private in the Rockbridge artillery and saw four years of service under the Confederacy, ending with the rank of captain.

After teaching for five years following the close of the war at the Norwood School in Nelson county, he came to the Episcopal High School, where he saw constant service for years. Dr. Blackford devoted his life to the instruction of boys and their character building, and by his efforts made the Episcopal High School the foremost preparatory school in the state. It was he who inaugurated the honor system at the school as far back as 1870. In the year 1904 the degree of LL. D. was conferred upon him by Washington and Lee University.

While Dr. Blackford had of course, resided on Seminary Hill during the past 43 years, he had been looking upon an Alexandrian, and had been a familiar figure in our streets as if native and to the manner born. He has ever manifested interest in this city, and served many years as vestryman of Christ Church.

While Dr. Blackford's labors were, of course, mainly centered in the school over which he had so long presided, he ever played his part as a general educator, and communications from his pen often appeared in the Gazette and were read with pleasure by thousands. His observations upon passing events were always timely and practical.

Dr. Blackford, while not a globe trotter, up to a few years ago, spent his vacations in Europe, and his letters from foreign capitals published in the Gazette were read with interest, and were the means of inducing numbers of Alexandrians to go abroad.

FIVE INDICTMENTS.

Rev. C. B. Ragsdale to Answer Charge of Perjury in Frank Case.

Atlanta, Ga., May 23.—Charges of bribery, coercion, and perjury, made in connection with efforts to obtain a new trial for Leo M. Frank, under sentence of death for the murder of 14-year-old Mary Phagan, yesterday resulted in five indictments being returned by the Fulton county grand jury.

The Rev. C. B. Ragsdale, recently dismissed from the pastorate of a local church on a charge of the repudiating of an affidavit made by him in behalf of the convicted factory superintendent, was indicted for perjury, with R. L. Barber, Arthur Thurman, a lawyer, Daniel S. Lehon, representative of a national detective agency, and Carlton C. Tedder, engaged in detective work, were charged with subornation of perjury.

Further investigation of the charges of improper influence in the noted murder case is to be made by the grand jury, it was announced by the State's officials. The grand jury will reconvene next Tuesday.

The action was the result of a confession by the Rev. Mr. Ragsdale, that he was given $200 to swear that he heard a colored man in an alley confess that he, and not Frank, killed the factory girl by striking her over the head, and strangling her. Barber, a laborer, made a supplementary affidavit to the original one made by the minister, in which he asserted that he recognized one of these colored men as James Conley.

The original affidavits of Ragsdale and Barber were used by the defense in connection with its extraordinary motion for a new trial for Frank. The confession was made in a counter-affidavit for the State's officials in combating the new trial motion. Conley was a factory sweeper, and the chief witness against Frank. He was convicted as an accessory after the fact, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

Warrants were immediately sworn out for the five men named and placed in the hands of deputy sheriffs to be served. All of the indicted are expected to give bond pending their trials.

New York, May 23.—Charles Becker, twice convicted of procuring the murder of Herman Rosenthal, today refused to give up hope of escaping the electric chair and started a new fight for life.

Becker refused to wait for the sentence of death which Justice Seabury will pronounce next Friday, and for the appeal to the appellate court which will follow.

ONLY ONE WEEK OF THE CAMPAIGN

Every One Urged to Send in Contributions as Early as Possible.

$5,000 ASKED OF CITY.

This Sum Would Amount to Fifteen Cents Per Capita—Two Hundred and Five Dollars Added.

Only one week more and the campaign for securing $50,000 for the building fund of the Alexandria hospital closes, and therefore we urge every one who intends to contribute to send in their subscriptions either in cash or pledges as rapidly as possible. The business men of our city have for six weeks given their time to securing this fund and while highly gratified with the results of the amount received up to the present time they hope that by the end of the next week the deficiency will be made up.

The committee has asked council to contribute $5,000 toward the building fund, to be paid, $2,500 out of this year's funds and $2,500 out of next year's annual levy, for it is considered that a hospital is in need in every up-to-date city. Council represents every one and could not be called upon to lead a more laudable undertaking.

The per capita tax for two years would not exceed 15c for our people and in a measure it would identify every city with the hospital. Our report up to 10 A. M. today shows $30,793.57 leaving only a little more than $10,000 to be secured, and if the city makes the contribution requested, there will be only about $14,000 to be raised from the numerous persons, organizations and corporations who have not sent in their subscriptions.

Among the contributions received this morning was an anonymous one from Charleston, W. Va., for $50 and one for $25 from Potomac Lodge, I. A. of M., No. 580.

On the 15th the name of Elmer I. Soures appeared as contributing $10. The name should have been Elmer I. Sowers, Fairfax, Va.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Declaration Contest May 29th—Literary Society Meets Tonight.

Declaration Contest. The contest, to decide which of its members is the best declaimer, will be held by the Alexandria High School Literary Society next Friday night, May 29th, at 7:30, in the Lee School Building. The contest promises to be one of great interest, as a goodly number have already filed their names with the secretary of the society, to enter the contest, and they are already working up their declamations. The winner of the contest is to be awarded the handsome gold medal, which was presented to the society several weeks ago.

The following is a list of those who have already filed their names as contestants for the medal:

Miss Madeline Martin.
Miss Helen Blake.
Miss Flora Glasgow.
Ashby Bladen.
Frank Johnston.
Waller Barrett.
Elwin Brawner.

The public is cordially invited to attend the contest.

Literary Society Meeting.

The A. H. S. Literary Society will hold its regular meeting tonight at 7:30 in the school building. All members are requested to be present. There is important business on hand for tonight's meeting.

The program for this evening is also very interesting. Declamations will be rendered by Miss Nina Fulton, Miss Mildred Callahan, and Miss Sarah Cox. The subject for debate is: "Resolved, that the government should own the public inter-state utilities." Miss Martin and John Reardon compose the affirmative side, and Miss Reardon and Waller Barrett, the negative. Visitors are invited to attend.

Volley Ball League.

The volley ball league of class teams have now been going on for over a week, and interest by the classes in their respective teams has not flagged in the least. Besides the comparatively large number of boys and girls on each class team, a large number of pupils look on at every game. So far the seniors and juniors have been beaten only once apiece. The other teams, though, are bound to catch up to the leaders, as only very few games have been played so far. Each afternoon two pairs of teams play a series of three games each. The winner of the series is credited with one real game, however. The standing of the class teams to date:

III year.....	4

On the Home Stretch.

Only three more school weeks remain before the close of school. Final examinations take up the last week, thus leaving only two weeks also of lessons to High School pupils, and those wishing you to pass on with their respective classes had better hustle if they wish to make the mark that will allow them to do this. The total general average at the end of the second term for the past three six-weeks periods averaged with the final exam grade will give the pupil's second term scholarship. The first term scholarship has been averaged likewise, and the two scholarships averaged together will give the mark which decides whether the pupil is to pass or fail. As failure means staying back in the same year for another school session, it is important to every pupil that he make the passing mark. Only two more weeks to study so hustle up!

Baseball Game Today.

The A.H.S. baseball team is playing Friends' School of Washington, on the North Alfred street grounds at 3 o'clock today. The High School nine are playing with their usual line-up, and with Raison and Shafer as their battery.

A mistake was made in last Saturday's High School Notes. Because of the depletion in the Athletic Association treasury made by baseball, the track team was unable to draw from the fund expenses to Fredericksburg to compete in the high school track meet there last Saturday.

DOVE OF PEACE HAS NOT YET ALIGHTED

Carranza Representatives Will only Meet Huerta's on Battlefield.

REPORTED "PROGRESS"

"Powers Should Deny Right of United States to Interfere With Mexico's Internal Affairs."

New York, May 23.—"The only place Carranza or his representatives will meet Huerta or the dictator's men is on the battlefield."

This was the reply made today by Jose Vasconcelos, chief of the constitutional junta here, when he asked regarding a report that his leader had named him as a mediator to attend the Niagara Falls peace conference. "As long as the Huertistas are at Niagara Falls, the constitutionalists will not go there," said Vasconcelos today. As a Mexican, I thank the A. B. C. mediators for their efforts. But we constitutionalists feel that no country has any right to interfere any more than a South American or European had a right to interfere in the great struggle which confronted the United States in 1861.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 23.—Slowly and deliberately the dove of peace is circling and maneuvering here before it finally alights.

"Informal formality" prevails as the A. B. C. mediators meet with the American or Mexican delegates in the "conversations" which are to lead up to the formal full conferences when formal terms of settlement of Mexico's troubles are to be submitted.

Despite the grave situation which led to this peace conference and the serious questions which must be considered, there is a distinct air of informality about the proceedings. There is no set program of conferences. The United States delegates motor over from the American side at most unexpected times, although they have, of course, arranged for their coming.

"Favorable progress" is being made in the negotiations, according to Justice Lamar, but just how far the conversations have progressed is purely a matter of conjecture. A full conference with both sets of delegates and mediators present is not expected until sometime next week.

LOSE VALUED FRIEND.

St. Luke's Circle Adopt Resolution on Mrs. Green's Death.

On Friday, April 3rd, 1914, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis L. Williams, in Roanoke City, Md., Fanny McArthur, wife of Major John W. Green, of Alexandria, Va., entered into rest.

Soon after the organization of St. Luke Circle of King's Daughters, May 28, 1889, Mrs. Green was chosen President of the Circle and for a period of 25 years served faithfully in that capacity. For the past few years her health, and absence from the city, prevented her from taking any active part in the work of the Circle, but the members refused to accept her resignation, which was several times offered, not desiring to sever a connection so long continued and so full of pleasant associations.

At a recent meeting of the Circle, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That in the death of our President the Circle has lost a valued friend, whose prayers and words of counsel have been greatly missed. That this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Circle and published in the Alexandria Gazette.

"Father, in thy gracious keeping, Leave me now Thy servant sleeping."

ANOTHER ANNIVERSARY HONOR ASCENSION DAY

Alexandria Captured By Federal Army Fifty-three Years Ago Tomorrow

Tomorrow, May 24, will be the fifty-third anniversary of thrilling scenes in Alexandria. The city, while one of the oldest in the country, had not been generally known throughout the country up to that time, but the killing of Colonel Ellsworth and James T. Jackson at the Marshall house early on that eventful day brought Alexandria prominently before the country. The story has of been told in newspapers and magazines.

The Confederate flag had been floating over Alexandria for several weeks and wearers of the gray had been patrolling the streets, and especially the river front. The gunboat Pawnee, with her port holes open and cannon frowning upon the city, lay in the stream, while transport followed transport up the river with troops for the defense of the national capital.

The Confederates were on the alert all the time, as they knew a sudden move upon Alexandria was likely to occur at any time, and that it was the purpose of the Federal government to move a large body of troops upon the city. When the order was given to march from different points upon Alexandria the purpose was immediately divined by those on watch, and all the Southern soldiers save one company managed to get out of the city and on trains. The latter rallied at Manassas Junction, where they constructed fortifications.

Many thrilling incidents in connection with the evacuation of this city could be recited which would prove interesting reading to the present generation. Some are occasionally told at gatherings of Confederate veterans. R. E. Lee camp, will, as usual, celebrate this anniversary. As the 24th falls this year upon Sunday, they will celebrate Monday with the customary parade, services at the Monument and Christ Church.

Women's New Bathing Suits

Every year the style changes in bathing and beach costumes, but the ideas of general fashion, this season, is especially noticeable, but they are just that much prettier as a result. The new Bathing Suits are not only fashionable, but are comfortable and perfect fitting, and in trimming have borrowed many ideas from skirts and gowns.

Silk suits are very beautiful, and embrace taffetas, satins, and moire silks; these are in two-piece style, skirt and waist, and are to be worn with all wool tights. Mohair and Jersey Cloths fashion the more practical suits, with bloomers or tights as desired.

Departures in color and novel style ideas are numerous. Variety in collars is one of the interesting points—sailor and round collars, or collars pointed in back, some of Roman or Persian silk, others trimmed with self material in contrasting or self colors, and many finished with a fancy tie. Tunic effects are seen in the more expensive skirts, others with set in panel of striped silks.

Shown in sizes 34 to 46, and in black, navy blue, green and lavender. All wool Jersey Tights, knee length $2.95 to $6.75. Jersey tights with feet, $3.75 each. $2.50 to $15 each. 3d Floor, G. St.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

The rank and file of the church militant are aware of the fact that suggestions from them are not asked and are turned down on general principles. Yet occasionally some of this class have the temerity to suggest certain departures which it is believed would result in good were they adopted. In the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Chicago yesterday Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Davies, of Philadelphia, moved that an evangelist-at-large be appointed with a corps of special auxiliaries for immediate work in the country. Dr. Davies said there never was a time when expository teaching of the Bible was more needed than at present.

Dr. Davies' plan will meet with the hearty endorsement of a large percentage of church-goers not only in the Presbyterian Church but in all evangelical bodies. The office of evangelist in the church is provided for in the New Testament and this work is equally as important as that of pastor or teacher.

In this day the ancient routine of preaching from texts, some of which embrace but a bare suspicion of what is in the Bible, is not appealing to the masses. Most of them would prefer to hear more of the actual contents and meaning of the scriptures. This procedure was satisfactory centuries ago, when but few copies of the Bible existed and when disciples went from place to place repeating passages from holy writ which they memorized at Christian gatherings. Paul evidently referred to this practice when he said, "It is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance that Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners." That short sentence had doubtless been repeated at gatherings of disciples, in stone quarries, open fields, catacombs and in upper chambers.

Historians tell us a father of the church, Origen, originated the present custom of delivering discourses from two or three lines of the sacred records, and although he flourished many centuries ago, the great bulk of teachers are following in his footsteps in the twentieth century when Bibles are so common.

There is no doubt whatever that should those whose calling it is to feed the flock become expository teachers many pews now vacant would be occupied by earnest people who seek the truth.

There has recently been launched a commendable movement, approved by dignitaries among Catholics, Protestants and Jews, for a closer study of the Bible. A new translation of the entire book was issued by Protestants years ago. The Catholics are now engaged in translating and revising the Bible, as are also the ancient people to whom the lively oracles were originally committed.

While all this is going on nepotistic teaching should accompany the movement, which is significant in this day when, in the figurative language used by the Author of Christianity, "the seas and the waves are roaring."

"THE GODS ON MURDERERS. FIX REVENGEFUL EYES."

Former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker was yesterday for the second time convicted of the being responsible for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, in New York nearly two years ago. The wheels of the law will be clogged for at least a year by the appeal which the condemned man will take to a higher tribunal. The grand jury in Atlanta has indicted several persons, including a preacher, for perjury in attempts to shift the responsibility of the murder of Mary Phagan, the young factory girl, from Leo Frank to the negro Conley.

The era of crime which seems to be spreading over the country is naturally causing apprehension. A brutal murder was committed in New York this week. A man who had founded the professional shedders of blood in that city was ruthlessly shot to death while he was on his knees, supplicating heaven. It is a common occurrence for saloons and dwelling houses to be blown up by bombs and innocent persons killed or injured.

All large cities in the world are infested by Apaches, as they are now called. The latest victim in Italy is an elderly woman from this country who is lying in a critical state after having been shot by thieves on a railway train.

When characters like Becker and others are detected in their careers of crime they fight their way through the courts and are often likely to die of old age before they pay the penalty of their deeds.

AUTO ACCIDENT.

W. A. Mullen, who is employed by W. A. Smoot & Co., in driving their big automobile truck, met with a painful accident at 2 o'clock this afternoon near the Potomac yards. In approaching a bank the auto went over it throwing Mr. Mullen out on his head. For a time it was thought that he had been seriously injured. The ambulance was called and the injured man was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where Dr. Delaney dressed the wounds. He had received a painful cut on the head but after having received the necessary treatment was able to leave the hospital for his home.

ted beautiful and large chapel, as soon as possible. He said the people there could build a chapel large enough for themselves, but the chapel which they proposed to erect must be a witness to the diocesan and Episcopal Alumni interest in the religious life of the University.

On Thursday night another meeting was held in St. James Church for foreign missions. The speakers were E. L. Woodward, M. D., on China, the Rev. Robb White on the Philippines and the Rev. Charles Somers, of St. Phillips, colored church, Richmond, on work among colored people.

This meeting of the Council was of deep interest throughout. Many most important matters were settled, chief of all the election of a coadjutor bishop in the person of Dr. Brown. The weather was delightful and the hospitality of Richmond unbounded. There was a sad note running through all the session caused by the deaths of Drs. Clark and R. A. Goodwin, familiar faces in the council heretofore.

The many good reports I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills led me to get a box at Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. They fixed me up in fine shape. NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

MARSHALL SCORES

Would Have Constitutional Representative Admitted to Mediation Conference.

Richmond, Va., May 23.—"Speaking from no knowledge of the inside workings of the mediation conference in progress at Niagara, but just from my personal observations upon the course of the Mexican controversy, I greatly favor the admission of Carranza's representatives to the mediation proceedings." This was the statement of Vice President Marshall just before he left here for Washington yesterday.

"When Villa takes Mexico City the United States will face a new crisis in the Mexican situation. From the facts as I know them, it is my judgment that Villa is a tyrant, little better than Huerta."

"Villa is not likely to be a party to mediation, I should say. The reckless course he is likely to lead must be stayed by influences outside himself."

"If it is within the stipulations and agreements governing mediation conferences, I very much hope that the other parties to proceedings will see fit to admit the constitutional faction to a voice."

TRAINED NURSE ARRESTED.

Richmond Woman is Charged With Giving Worthless Checks.

Richmond, Va., May 23.—Miss Emma P. Thurston, trained nurse, who has been engaged on private cases at Bristol, Va., Tenn., for six months, was arrested here Thursday night charged with issuing worthless checks in Bristol.

Joseph V. Grayson, an employee of the H. P. King Company, of Bristol, caused Miss Thurston's arrest. In the police court she was released on $1,000 bail for her appearance in court next Wednesday. Her brother, W. E. Thurston, a Goodland county farmer, became her surety.

It is understood that if the checks are made good the case against the young woman will be dismissed.

Will Not Buy "Westover."

Norfolk, Va., May 22.—Vincent Astor and his bride, who have been cruising in this vicinity for several days on his yacht, the Noma, came ashore here yesterday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Astor spent several hours in Norfolk walking about the streets and looking into the windows but were not recognized. They had been up the James as far as "Westover." The report that the young millionaire was to purchase that estate was denied emphatically by him. When asked of the report he said: "I have not now, and never have, had any intention of buying 'Westover.'"

Mr. Astor said his trip here was purely for pleasure and health. He is unusually thin and shows the effect of his recent serious illness. The Noma is expected to remain here a day or so longer, and probably will sail on Saturday for Bermuda.

PRICE OF SCHOOL BOOKS.

Alleged Discrepancies in Prices Promise Interesting Developments by State.

Richmond, May 23.—The State board of education, through its subcommittee appointed to consider the prices of school text books, offered for adoption by Virginia is expected to sift to the bottom the alleged discrepancies in prices as between this and other states and will thoroughly investigate reported pernicious activity of certain teachers in the State schools in their advocacy of books offered for adoption by particular publishing houses. There are special statutes covering each offense, and developments of a rather sensational nature may follow the investigation.

The subcommittee, composed of Governor Stuart, Attorney-General Pollard and Superintendent of Public Instruction Stearnes, will make its report to an adjourned meeting of the entire board here May 28th. The publishers have been asked to submit bids for rental of the plates from which the text books are printed, it being claimed that by the adoption of this method the State of California gets its books at greatly reduced prices, but the publishers' agents can only confer with Superintendent Stearnes.

Under the Virginia law, the publishers selling books for use in the State schools must enter into contract and give bond that the retail prices of the books will be as low as in any other state. If it develops that Virginia has been discriminated against, Attorney-General Pollard will be called upon to proceed against the publishers, all of whom are under bond.

A Virginia law also prescribes a fine of not less than $10 and not over $500 for any school teacher who shall be convicted of having any pecuniary interest, acting as agent or receiving promise of reward for influence in recommending any book. Removal, of course, is included under the law.

It has been rumored that several teachers have been active in their advocacy of certain books, and it is up to the board of education to decide whether they have violated the law.

CHILD MISSING; MOTHER HELD.

Mrs. Bryan Holliday Under Guard At Orange.

Orange, Va., May 23.—Mrs. Bryan Holliday, formerly of Louisa county, divorced wife of Bryan Holliday, of Philadelphia, is under guard at the hotel here charged with the abduction of her child.

Mrs. Holliday and her husband were divorced a short while ago and Mr. Holliday was given custody of the child. Mrs. Holliday was allowed the privilege of visiting it.

The child was put in charge of Mrs. Charles Cowherd, near Gordonsville, where Mrs. Holliday visited Thursday. During the day Mrs. Holliday and the child disappeared and were traced to Gordonsville, where it was learned that a man named Finley had taken charge of the child. No trace of Finley could be found but Mrs. Holliday was arrested, taken before Magistrate Ross, of Gordonsville, who sent her to Orange to await the action of the Circuit Court.

MURDERER EXECUTED.

George Woods, Who Choked Spouse to Death, is Electrocuted.

Richmond, Va., May 23.—George Woods, a negro wife-murderer went to his death in the electric chair yesterday morning. Governor Stuart having declined to interfere, Woods was convicted of choking his wife to death with his hands. The crime was said to have been absolutely unprovoked. The negro had previously been sent to the roads from Danville for selling liquor without license. He escaped from the road camp, returned to his home, and there killed his wife, after which he returned to the road camp to resume his labors. A plea of insanity did not avail to save Woods from the doom pronounced by the court and he yesterday paid with his life the penalty of his crime.

WILL HAVE MANOEUVRES.

Entire Virginia Militia to Attend War Games.

Richmond, Va., May 23.—War manoeuvres in the vicinity of Washington have not been declared off, according to information obtained at the office of Adjutant General Sale, and they will probably be held some time between August 1 and 20. This is the present understanding, and it is believed that the program will be followed unless Mexican war situation becomes more critical before that time.

It is the plan of General Sale to send the entire force of Virginia volunteers to the games if they are held, and he believes that the experience will be of inestimable value to them. The force will include the new companies recently formed, and the signal corps, which is regarded as one of the most valuable acquisitions of the volunteers in recent years.

The appropriation for the manoeuvres has been made by Congress and cannot be used for any other purpose, so that it is believed that the war department will make every effort to hold them. Should the Virginia troops be ordered to the games they will be assigned to assist in the defense of Washington. It is said that the plans for the games have been completed in every detail, and that they are expected to bring out many new ideas in military tactics for the defense of the national capital.
